INTRODUCTION

The Standing Orders of Llangammarch Community Council are designed to assist in the proper conduct of Council business. They set out the policies and procedures -- both those laid down in statute and those adopted by resolution of the Council -- which govern the way in which the Council operates. The master document is held by the Clerk to the Council and may be inspected by any person by prior appointment with the Clerk.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Community Council exists to serve the communities of Llangammarch Wells, Cefn Gorwydd, Tirabad and part of Garth, in the county of Powys.

1. THE OFFICE OF COMMUNITY COUNCILLOR

1.1 Qualification

A person is qualified to be elected as a Community Councillor, and to hold such office, if he/she is a British subject, or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, or a citizen of the European Union, and on the relevant day (defined below) has reached 18 years of age AND

(a) on that day, he/she is, and thereafter continues to be, a local government elector for the community area; OR

(b) he/she has, during the whole of the twelve months preceding that day, occupied - as owner or tenant - any land or other premises in that area; OR

(c) his/her principal or only place of work during that twelve-month period has been in the area; OR

(d) he/she has during the whole of that twelve-month period resided in the area; OR

(e) he/she has during the whole of the twelve-month period preceding the relevant date resided within three miles of the community.

1.2 The "relevant day" means (except in the case of an election not preceded by the nomination of candidates) the day on which the person is nominated as a candidate and, if there is a poll, the day of election. In the excepted case, the term means the day of election.

1.3 In order to qualify on the basis of residence, it is necessary for the person at least to have a sleeping apartment within the area or within three miles thereof. It is permissible for a person (for example, a student) to be a resident in more than one place at a time.

1.4 A Member qualified under (b), (c), (d) or (e) above continues to be qualified during the term of his/her office even though he/she ceases to be an elector or his/her situation is otherwise changed. However, a Councillor qualified on the day of nomination and election only by virtue of his/her being a local government elector must continue to be a local government elector for the community council area during the whole period of his/her office. Registration on the electoral roll is essential for qualification as a local government elector.

1.5 Disqualification

A person is disqualified from being a Community Councillor if he/she:

- (a) holds any paid office or employment under the council (other than the office of Chairman) or any joint committee on which the council is represented; OR
- (b) has been adjudged bankrupt or has made a composition or arrangement with his/her creditors (but see below); OR
- (c) has within five years before the day of election, or since his/her election, been convicted in the UK, Channel Islands or Isle of Man, of any offence and has been sentenced to imprisonment (whether suspended or not) for not less than three months without the option of a fine; OR
- (d) is otherwise disqualified under Part III of the Representation of the People Act 1983 for corrupt or illegal practices.

1.6 The disqualification for bankruptcy ceases in the following circumstances:

- (a) if the bankruptcy is annulled on the grounds that either the person ought not to have been adjudged bankrupt or that his/her debts have been fully discharged;
- (b) if the person is discharged with a certificate that the bankruptcy was caused by a misfortune without any misconduct on his/her part;
- (c) if the person is discharged without such a certificate.

In (a) and (b) above, the disqualification ceases on the date of the annulment and discharge respectively. In (c), it ceases on the expiry of five years from the date of discharge. The disqualification for composition or arrangements with creditors ceases upon payment of the debts in full or on the expiry of five years from the date on which the terms of the composition or arrangement are fulfilled.

1.7 Elections

Elections will be held every four years (or as otherwise determined) and will normally take place on the first Thursday in May.

The ordinary election of Community Councillors will be conducted by means of nomination of candidates by two electors of the community and, if necessary, a poll.

1.8 Acceptance of Office

No Councillor may act until he/she has executed a Declaration of Acceptance of Office (see Annex) in the presence of a Member or the Proper Officer of the Council, and has delivered it to the Council. Councillors must make the declaration at or before the first meeting after election unless the Council at that meeting permits the declaration to be made at or before a later meeting. The Chairperson must make the declaration at the meeting at which he/she is elected.

If the declaration is not executed at the proper time, a casual vacancy automatically arises (see 1.12 below).

1.9 Code of Conduct

Each Councillor, whether elected or co-opted, must undertake in writing to abide by the Council's Code of Conduct. This undertaking is incorporated in the declaration, so admission to office is not possible without signing it. With effect from 6 May 2008, Llangammarch Community Council adopted the provisions of the Code of Conduct introduced by the Local Authorities (Model Code of Conduct) (Wales) Order 2008 (see Annex). The Code sets out the standards of behaviour expected of Councillors and introduces a new requirement not to act or behave in a manner which could bring the office or authority into disrepute, together with an obligation to report suspected breaches of the Code to the Monitoring Officer and the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales.

1.10 Disclosure of Interests

The Code also sets out the system under which Councillors must declare personal or prejudicial interests in any business of the Council. Guidance on the rules has been provided by Powys County Council, together with forms for recording declarations (see Annex). The Clerk to the Council will maintain a Register of Members' Interests, which will be available for public inspection at any reasonable time by prior appointment.

1.11 Period of Office

Community Councillors are elected for a term of four years, retiring together on the fourth day after the date of the normal elections held every four years. The newly-elected Councillors take office on that fourth day.

The Chairperson will serve for the period from one annual meeting to the next. If it becomes necessary to elect a Chairperson between annual meetings, the elected person will serve until the next annual meeting.

1.12 Casual Vacancy

A casual vacancy may result from failure to make a declaration of acceptance of office, ceasing to be qualified (1.1), disqualification (1.5), resignation or death or through failure to attend a meeting for a period of six months (unless the failure is for an approved reason).

Once a Councillor ceases to be qualified or becomes disqualified or ceases to be a Member by failing to attend meetings, the Council must immediately declare the office vacant. The declaration of vacancy will be made, by resolution, at the first available meeting of the Council, after which Powys County Council should be informed and the casual vacancy will be advertised by means of a public notice provided by Powys County Council.

If within fourteen days of the public advertisement a poll is requested by no fewer than ten electors of the community, a by-election must be held in order to fill the vacancy. Otherwise, as soon as possible after the expiry of fourteen days from the date of the public advertisement, the vacancy will be filled by the Council itself by the co-option of a suitable person qualified to serve as a Councillor.

The person who fills the casual vacancy, whether by poll or co-option, will retire from office at the time when the Councillor he/she has replaced would have retired in the normal course of events.

The Council may co-opt any person qualified to serve as a Councillor. If there is more than one candidate, the person co-opted must have secured an absolute majority of Councillors' votes. If there are more than two candidates, a series of votes will be held with the person securing the lowest number of votes being eliminated each time. Councillors may vote by a show of hands or by ballot. The Chairperson may vote and may exercise a casting vote. Members of the public, including candidates, should not be excluded from the Council's debate and vote.

Once a poll has been requested in respect of a casual vacancy, it is no longer permissible to fill the vacancy by co-option, even if the initial poll does not result in any person being nominated for election.

If the casual vacancy arises within six months of the date on which the Councillor would normally have retired, no poll can be demanded and the vacancy need not be filled until the next ordinary election.

Model Local Resolution Protocol for Community and Town Councils

ONE VOICE WALES

Model Local Resolution Protocol for Community and Town Councils

Background

The Public Service Ombudsman has agreed to the principle of referring some complaints against Members back to Community and Town Councils for a local resolution. However to date there has not been a common process for Community and Town Councils to follow in dealing with such matters. To assist the sector, One Voice Wales has drawn up the following as a model protocol which any Community and Town Council can use in dealing with such complaints.

This model protocol is meant as a starting point for Community and Town councils. Individual councils may wish to add or amend this model to suit their particular needs. Councils wishing to use this process should first of all be clear about its purpose and intention, formally adopt it in its current or in a revised form and ensure that all Councillors are provided with a copy for their attention. The Council should then determine the framework through which it is operated which may require the establishment of a Committee or Panel or an extension of the terms of reference of an existing Panel or Committee such as a Complaints Panel or Committee. In the case of establishment of a new Panel it is important that terms of reference are prepared and approved by the Council. In either case it will be important for Councils to document in the terms of reference as to what will happen if there is a lack of co-operation shown by the member concerned or a breakdown occurring during the operation of the process. For example, in such cases the default position might be that the matter is referred to the Public Ombudsman for Wales.

The Local Resolution Process

Issues which should be considered under this process

Low level complaints about Members, including:

- Minor complaints from Members about Members
- Minor complaints from Officers about Members
- Members alleged to have not shown respect and consideration for others – either verbally or in writing

Issues which should not be considered under this process

Complaints which must be directed to the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales, including:

- Complaints instigated by a member of the public
- Serious complaints – breaches of the Code of Conduct/failure to disclose interests/bullying/abuse of position or trust/repeated breaches
- Complaints made by the Clerk/Proper Officer
- Vexatious, malicious or frivolous complaints

- Members' complaints about officers which should be dealt with using the Council's internal complaints process
- Repetitive low-level complaints

The Process

The complaint

The complaint would need to be sent to the Clerk/Proper Officer of the Council to undertake a first sift to ensure that the complaint is at a low level and should not be dealt with by way of a complaint to the Ombudsman. If appropriate, therefore, the Clerk/Proper Officer should firstly seek an early resolution of any such dispute by liaising informally with the individual members concerned prior to the resolution process described below. It is vitally important that the 'accused' member is given full details of the complaint against them so that in the interests of natural justice they are in a position to prepare their response to the accusation.

Resolution Process

The involvement of the Chair/Vice Chair of the Council in the following process is not to adjudicate on the complaint, but to attempt to get the members/officers involved to come to an agreement as to how the issue(s) could be resolved on an amicable basis.

The Clerk/Proper Officer will act as a facilitator for the resolution process below.

If the complaint is between Members other than the Chair of the Council, the Clerk/Proper Officer and the Chair will meet individually with the complainant and Member subject of the complaint to seek an agreed resolution.

If the complaint is between Members, one of whom is the Chair of Council, but not the Vice Chair, the Clerk/Proper Officer and the Vice Chair will meet with the complainant and Member subject of the complaint to seek an agreed resolution.

If the complaint has been made by an officer/employee, but not the Clerk/Proper Officer, against a Member other than the Chair of Council, the Clerk/Proper Officer and the Chair of Council will meet with the officer and the Member subject of the complaint to seek an agreed resolution.

If the complaint has been made by an officer/employee, but not the Clerk/Proper Officer, against the Chair of Council, the Clerk/Proper Officer and the Vice Chair of Council will meet with the officer and the Chair to seek an agreed resolution.

If the complaint has been made by the Clerk/Proper Officer, then it is likely to be best practice that this complaint is forwarded by way of a complaint to the Ombudsman.

Possible results of the process

If an agreement is reached by Members and/or officers during this Stage then no further action is required.

If agreement cannot be reached the aggrieved Member/officer would always have the opportunity of referring the matter to the Ombudsman.

Examples of agreements might include issue of a letter of apology, a written undertaking or commitment not to breach the Code of Conduct in the future, a commitment to undertake training or an agreement that on the basis of the evidence that no further action should be taken and the matter be closed.

Time for the process

It is the intention that all of the processes can be completed as quickly as possible to resolve the issue. However exact timing will depend on the availability of individuals to attend the meetings.

Important Points to Note in preparing a process for use by the Council

The Clerk/Proper officer, Chair and Vice Chairs of Councils should consider receiving appropriate training in facilitation and mediation to be in a position to maximise the benefit of this process. Councils wishing to pursue this route should contact One Voice Wales for guidance.

Councils might want to include some guidance where complaints which are most appropriately dealt with under this process are referred back to the Council by PSOW. The PSOW could actively do this if the Council has an approved process.

It is suggested that any meetings held with a view to discussing the issues of complaints and/or resolving matters are at the very least minuted, if not recorded. This is to ensure that agreements are captured. This will also be useful in the event that matters break down or escalate and need to be referred to the PSOW. It may also be useful as evidence in the event of further similar breaches of the conduct and future conduct.

Councils need to be clear on their powers in respect of code of conduct matters. The Ombudsman has seen examples of councils who have deemed it appropriate to fully investigate a code complaint, decide that there has been a breach and some have even thought it appropriate to consider the issue of a sanction. Investigations of possible breaches of the Code are matters for the Ombudsman. The Local Government Act 2000 gives him the authority to carry out such investigations. The Council has no legal authority to undertake such investigations or to make findings of a breach of the Code of Conduct, which are decisions that can only be reached by a Standards Committee or the Adjudication Panel for Wales.

Addendum 2 - Members' Code of Conduct Quick Reference Guide.

DISCLAIMER:

This guidance should not be taken to be an authoritative statement of the law.

For more detailed information - reference should always be made to the Members' Code of Conduct and the Guidance issued by the Public Services Ombudsman.

DISCLOSURE – Where you have a PERSONAL INTEREST you MUST disclose it at a meeting, in a discussion, in any correspondence etc.

QUESTION 2 – Is that Personal Interest ALSO a PREJUDICIAL INTEREST.

If you do not have a Personal Interest you will not have a Prejudicial Interest.

Single test for Prejudicial Interest:

Would a reasonable member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts (including knowledge of your personal interest) believe that your interest is so significant that it is LIKELY to harm or impair your ability to take an objective decision.

NOTES:

- A councillor should always consider this from the viewpoint of the public not their own by asking the question - “What would a reasonable member of the public think about my taking part in this decision?”
- Councillors should act in the public interest – not in the interests of family, close friends or business associates.
- Local knowledge or connections with the local community are not sufficient to meet the test.
- There must be some factor which might positively harm the councillor’s ability to judge the public interest objectively, even if the councillor decides to take a decision based on the merits of the case.
- Are a large number of people equally affected by the decision or just the councillor and a smaller group of people.

N.B. - SEE QUESTION 3 – EXEMPTIONS.
